Dear Mary:

I had the privilege of visiting with your parents a few weeks ago in Knoxville and was happy to obtain from them your address. Marian told me of your living in Cincinnati and of your attempt to attend my recent meeting in Dayton. I do hope by now your family is better and all has returned to normal. It was a disappointment not to get to see you while in the Cincinnati area.

I remember our associations at Freed Hardeman College and have always appreciated the opportunity that was mine to know you. I send you and your family my very best regards and look forward to renewing our acquaintance on future visits to your area.

Sincerely,

John Allen Chalk
